The director responsible for Your work will always be willing to discuss the basis for charging a particular matter, which may involve a fixed fee or be on any other basis that will be agreed with You at the outset. A fee schedule may be produced at the outset of the matter setting out the basis for charging. We may increase Our charges from time to time but only upon giving You reasonable notice of such increase and Our determining that such revised fee continues to provide fair value to You.
- 2.1.4. Where an estimate of fees is requested and given, it is only an indication of the amount anticipated as being the likely charge and shall not be regarded as an agreed fee for the work or transaction, unless specifically confirmed in writing as such by Alltrust.
- 2.1.5. Annual fees are billed annually and in advance if we consider that to be fair.

2.2 Interim Billing

Unless we agree to the contrary in writing, we will render regular interim invoices at such times as may be specified in relation to Your particular matter at the outset. Fees for certain services are subject to an annual minimum, which, if applicable, will be disclosed to You at the outset of any matter. post, telephone, fax and other disbursements recharged quarterly as per Our scale of fees

- 2.3.3. The fees of any lawyers (English law or otherwise) or other advisors instructed by Us on Your behalf may either be included as disbursements in Our invoice or, if not, You will be responsible for the settlement of such fees directly with such counsel and/or advisors.

3. Client's Monies

- 3.1. As a general rule, we will assist all Managed Entities in setting up their own bank accounts over which we will have control of day-to-day transactions. In the case of multi-member pension schemes, each scheme will have its own account in which members' funds will be held.
- 3.2. Until such time as a dedicated account is opened in accordance with Clause 3.1, funds may be held in a pooled Client Money Bank Account with other clients' funds. Your individual entitlement will be clearly identified in our internal records.

Client Money is held by us as trustee under a statutory trust, meaning it is protected from our creditors in the event of our insolvency.

- 3.4. We reserve the right to pay any fees and disbursements which are due for payment from monies held in your account. Any such withdrawal will be conducted in strict accordance with FCA CASS rules regarding the transfer of client money to the firm to settle a due and payable debt.

- 5.1. You may terminate Your instructions to Us and this Agreement by giving Us at least 60 days' notice in writing at any time (although we may agree with You a shorter notice period) but we will be entitled to keep Your papers and documents while there is money outstanding to Us for Our fees, charges, expenses, and disbursements.

- 5.5. In the event of termination, Alltrust may make such retentions as it may require in respect of any actual or contingent liabilities.

- 7.2. Where Alltrust or an Associated Company is the trustee in relation to a Managed Entity that is a pension scheme, under the terms of which the member or any other Beneficiary is responsible for making, reviewing or changing any investment decisions (excluding circumstances where this is a power of Alltrust which has been delegated to a such person), subject to the requirements of the pension scheme governing documentation and overriding legislation, Alltrust will have no responsibility whatsoever for reviewing, making or changing of investments (except in limited circumstances which may be specified) and such pension may only be available to any Client on the basis that the person holding the investment power disclaims Alltrust from all liability in relation to such arrangement.

- 7.3. Where Alltrust or an Associated Company is the trustee in relation to a Managed Entity that is a pension scheme under the terms of which the trustee is responsible for the investment management of the assets, we may where permitted by the scheme documentation delegate the investment powers to an investment manager we consider suitable to manage the investments. In that case, except to the extent provided in the scheme documentation or overriding law, the Trustee will have no liability in relation to acts or omissions of the investment manager.

8. Communication

- 8.1. We operate an online portal and, where applicable, a Client or any other relevant individual will be given access to their personal information via this portal. In accepting these Terms and Conditions You consent to the destruction of such files
